Those wishing inspection are required to show their registrations and pay the fee for inspection. Any questions may be directed to the Town Office.

The Board of Selectmen met on Monday evening, May 21, at the Bethel Savings Bank. After a public hearing, it was voted to grant victualers' licenses to the Bulldog Diner, Bethel Inn, Mothers' Bethel Spa, Charlie's Place, Norseman Inn, L'Auberge, and Martha's Restaurant.

BETHEL ROTARY CLUB HEAR OF HEAD START AND LOCAL ROAD ENFORCEMENT
On Tuesday, May 22, Betty Woodbury and Joyce Crockett from the West Bethel Head Start Center attended the regular meeting of the Bethel Rotary Club at the Sunday River Inn as guests of Club Acting President Dick Verville. The Head Start representatives presented the Club with a certificate of appreciation for contributions made to the Center—paint, tools and an old boat. The Club heard a brief but very encouraging report on the Center's progress including seeing color photos of "Winnie the Pooh" murals which add life and brightness to the Center.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Williams talked about drug and drug enforcement activities in the Bethel area. He brought with him an interesting display of materials which law enforcement officers have recovered in this area. He noted that with marijuana now costing $40 per ounce users try to multiply the effects of the drug by using various devices. One such device Williams had with him consisted of a vintage military gas mask with a wood turning attached to the mask's tube to act as a pipe bowl. The entire contraption had been locally confiscated and the wood turning was a local product, according to Williams.

Citizens can help law enforcement authorities, said Williams, by reporting instances where they observe suspicious activity.

BETHEL'S MOLLYCOKETT DAY FESTIVAL GROWS IN 1979
Mollycokett Day—Bethel's festival for charity which commemorates the Indian woman who befriended Bethel's earliest settlers—will run through a full week end this year. Dates are July 21 and 22. This year's program chairman is Gene Kelly of the Bethel Lions Club, overall program sponsor, with the Bethel Rotary Club acting as principal co-sponsor.

Mollycokett Day is a homespun vacation for Bethel area people, vacationers and those who have worked up each year's program. As a festival of the western mountain Mainer, it features competitive aspects of such daily activities as logging, biking, jogging, skateboarding and field events. Pride in their arts and crafts abilities is shown by local exhibitors on the Common.

Breaking with tradition, the program will continue through the week end with a 10,000 meter run followed by a Rotary auction on Sunday. Opening events on Saturday will be a young people's bike race and the traditional float parade on Main Street; parade theme for 1979 is the International Year of the Child. Fireworks will end Saturday's events with a bang. Prize possessions for the visitor to the Common will be a woodman's crafted item from the logger competition, a stomach full of barbecued chicken or a locally crafted souvenir that can later be handed from generation to generation.

Any groups or individuals interested in participating are urged to contact the Bethel Lions Club, Bethel, Maine 04217.

Sunday River

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.

Mrs. Maude Harrington was calling on us one day this week. Peggy Blake is working for her brother, Bryce Yates, part-time. The pasture fences are being repaired which means the cattle will soon be out.

The hummingbird came Sunday and will have plenty to eat as white as the apple trees are.

Sent in by Mrs. Eva Yates: Not too good and not too bad a week end. We could stand a little more sun and warm weather but that means more mosquitoes and other pests.

Bear River Grange #285 will meet at their hall Saturday night, May 26. As the Deputies will be our guests let's hope for a more quiet evening than the past ones have been. A noisy Grange meeting is very disturbing to all members.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Yates attended the 25th anniversary of friends in Auburn Saturday night. Elden and Darnita Yates spent the week end with their parents, the B. H. Yates.

Eva and Russell Yates were at Berlin, N. H., on Thursday. We found the Main Street all blocked off and there is also a lot of torn up road between Gorham and Berlin. They are laying sewer pipes I was told.

Peggy Blake held open house for her husband, Clayton Saturday afternoon to celebrate his birthday. Nineteen friends and relatives gathered to wish him well. They were Roy Blake, Emma Page, Charles, Pat and Amy Blake, Bryce, Barbara and Darnita Yates, Laura and Bernard Hutchins, Loretta Merrill, Rusty, Samantha and James, Myrna Carter, Eva and Russell Yates and the host, Peggy Blake. Refreshments of cake, both birthday and anniversary, as it was Peggy and Clayton's anniversary, ice cream, brownies, crackers, banana bread and punch.

Russell and Eva Yates visited the Bernard Hutchins Sunday.

Raymond Hathaway returned home Sunday, May 13, after spending a few days with his mother, Eunice Hathaway.

Another dark dreary Monday—that means go to the laundry if you want your wash to dry today. Oh, well, that's what laundries are for.

Also the weather was far from fine and lovely—yours truly gave a nice ride to South Arm—a place she had never been before. Also the day was bleak, the grass and leaves are beautiful, the brooks are running full and the roads are full of bumps and holes, it was a nice ride and after a good dinner of brook trout. Thank you L. and B.

Our good wishes go out to our Grange sister Selma Chapman who has had new joints put in both knees. We hope she gains fast and gets back home. She is missed, and her home looks lonesome.

We celebrated our 38th anniversary by a trip to Grafton in hopes to see a moose. We were able to help a neighbor who had stalled on a Brown Co. road, where he'd gone to go fishing, and his new alternator had conked out. Then on our way back we watched two cow moose feedings until they spoiled. From there we drove over Brown Co. roads where the scenery was almost too beautiful and different from any I'd seen previously. A very happy excursion.

Summer was in such a hurry that most of the flowers blossomed early and in quick succession. The lilacs are now budding and apple trees are in bloom.

MISS SPRAGUE IS GOULD VALEDICTORIAN

Robin Sprague, daughter of Mrs. Marilyn H. Chase, South Freeport, and Richard W. Sprague, Bangor, has been named Valedictorian of the graduating class of 1979 at Gould Academy.

Miss Sprague has spent four years at Gould and been involved in a wide variety of extra-curricular activities, as well as maintaining the top scholastic average in her class.

Robin Sprague

This year she spent the fall and winter terms in West Germany as a member of Gould's Foreign Exchange Program. Robin lived with a German family, attended the local high school and had many opportunities to travel throughout Europe. This was a marvelous opportunity for her to learn, not only the language, but the history, culture and life style of the people of a foreign country, which is a definite help in achieving an understanding and cooperation between peoples.

At Gould, Robin was very involved with the drama program and had the lead in many productions, including this spring's presentation of "The Crucible." While rehearsing for this she found time to sing in the chorus of the Bethel community musical, "Plain and Fancy." In addition to drama she sang in the choir and madrigals and was an active member of the Outing Club. Robin plans to continue her education in college next fall.

MISS COLBY TO RECEIVE DEGREE FROM SLIPPERY ROCK

Rebecca J. Colby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colby of South Rumford, formerly of Bethel, will be graduating cum laude from Slippery Rock (Penn.) State College on May 26, with a B.S. degree in health and physical education.

While a Slippery Rock, Rebecca was an active member of Synchronized Swimming, Women's Recreation Association, Nordic Ski Club and the cross country ski team. She attended elementary schools in Bethel and is a 1975 graduate of the St. Johnsbury Academy, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

GUEST LECTURER AT NORWAY C. S. SOCIETY

YMCA REPRESENTATIVE TO MEET WITH BETHEL CITIZENS TUESDAY EVENING

What are your feelings and thoughts about starting a "y" program in the greater Bethel area? There has been a lot of focus and discussion the past few months about the need for an activity center for all age groups. Also many individuals from Bethel and surrounding towns have contributed in the past to the Maine State YMCA. Having our own "y" could very well become a reality.

David Whalen, Associate Director of the MSY in Waterville will be at The Wherehouse on Tuesday, May 29, at 6:30 p. m., to answer questions and listen to what citizens perceive their needs to be. The more people who show up at this sharing, the more fresh ideas can be discussed. Teenagers and senior citizens are encouraged to take this opportunity to effect some positive change in this community. If you aren't there, how can folks know what YOU want—that goes for all ages. And you will be heard. Start writing down some of your ideas now and bring them with you on Tuesday evening.

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT HOLDS INSTALLATION

Jackson-Silver Post and Unit, #68, American Legion and Auxiliary, held a very impressive installation at their new home, Thursday night, May 17, preceded by a pot luck supper enjoyed by approximately 75 people.

The evening began with a prayer by Chaplain Alanson Cummings and after the meal there was the Salute to the Flag and "God Bless America" with Ellen Lovejoy at the piano. Introduction of the head table and other special guests was made by Commander Harmon Cummings and President Sylvia Dunham.

Two awards were given in appreciation of their services to the organizations: one to Mrs. Louise Jordan Chase of Jordan's Restaurant and the other to Sterling Mills of Bryant Pond. Mrs. Louise Jordan Chase has given parking privileges to the Post for many years and Mr. Mills has donated help on the new building and played in the orchestra for many benefits.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Royer, on violin and piano, gave a tremendous concert to an appreciative audience.

The very impressive installation was performed by Department Vice Commander Anthony Jordan, Wiscasset, Dept. Vice Commander Chick Christie, Topsham, and Roland Bowie, Lisbon Falls, as Chaplain.

Doing the honors for the ladies were Oxford County President, Jeri Brooks, Bethel; Carol Cloutier, Topsham, and Barbara Roach of Rumford as Chaplain. Miss Ellen Lovejoy was the pianist for both ceremonies.

President Joyce Hathaway was unable to be present and will be installed at a later date.

The new Commander, Raymond Hakala, has plans for the new year. That includes the dedication of the new home.

State Vice Commander Jordan praised the Post on its 23rd year with an all-time high membership. The entire state is 100% and one of the top in the nation.

Oxford County Commander Ed Roach of Rumford was presented a new Oxford County Bear Banner from the Post, made by Mrs. Marion Jordan, mother of Warren Smith. It will be carried in the State Convention in Portland, June 17.

BETHEL WATER DISTRICT PROPOSES RATE INCREASE

questioned as needed to meet increased costs.

"In the past, instead of accepting these increases and filing for new rates to cover inflation, attempts have been made to reduce costs to stay within the revenues available. While it is important to realize that some savings can, over a time become costly increases. For example, if you decide your car is costing too much and stop getting oil changes or don't replace the brake pads when worn out, the total cost will be much higher than if the necessary work had been done when needed.

"Likewise on the water system, small savings from using inadequate materials or failing to make necessary repairs have now driven the costs of supplying water high enough to force a rate increase.

A few minutes of preventative maintenance each year on the gate valves which control the main lines would have avoided costly repairs which are now necessary and which, until completed, increase the cost of any other necessary repairs.

"The Trustees recognize that the necessary changes must be made immediately if we want to avoid an increase of roughly three times the size which is now necessary.

"In order to do the work necessary at the lowest cost the Trustees have had to make many changes in the way the District operates; among these: The District expects to receive an installment loan of $37,000 for eight years which will allow us to spread the cost of capital items already purchased over a reasonable time; an experienced, full time superintendent has been hired (this has resulted in savings to the district which already almost equal his years salary and has provided systematic testing to assure customer safety); and the tools needed to work efficiently are being provided along with a truck and office/shop space required to make the best of our labor dollars.

"The lending institutions, whose cooperation makes possible the operation of any water district, require evidence that the District will be able to pay its debts. This in turn requires a rate increase sufficient to cover our expected operating costs.

"Despite the cost increasing factors mentioned already, the increase the District is requesting will cost a typical residential customer less than 80 cents additional per week. In fact, after adjusting for changes in the consumer price index the requested rates will be slightly less than those which the district was charging in 1969.

"A copy of the booklet detailing the proposed rate increase will be available at the Bethel Town Office and Head's Store in West Bethel."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to publicly express my gratitude to the forty community members who generously contributed their time on Wednesday afternoon, May 16, 1979, to give presentations at Telstar's first Career Day.

As a result of these people's contributions, over 300 students had a tremendous opportunity to learn about careers in 12 different areas. The students' response and faculty's response to the presentations by these community people was overwhelmingly favorable.

I hope that we can continue to work closely with community members in the future to increase our students' career awareness. Again, on behalf of the students and faculty at Telstar — thank you.

We are just enjoying the beauty of the season. The apple trees have popped open and are just beautiful. On the way to Norway Friday I saw a lot of lovely flowering crabs; but don't believe any of them can come close to the one in Homer Smith's dooryard. It is just one huge bouquet of pink blossoms. Down further in Valentine's field, an old large apple tree is just ablaze with white blossoms. The trees are leaved out enough so when one sees a wild cherry or an old apple tree blossomed the background of green just adds to the beauty. A lot of houses would have a tulip bed that gave a lot of color to their front lawns. We have quite a few red and yellow tulips out and the flowering quince has blossomed. The lilacs of the valley are coming out and give off such a lovely aroma as we walk by. Each day is just another day to find a new treasure. Yes, I love the spring.

Gerry and Jody Shimamura and Betsy Van Deusen had to be at Portland bus depot at 2 a. m. Wednesday morning, the 15th.

While in Japan Bill and Joe Shimamura went to a three day Boys Festival in Hamamatsu. Each district of the city has its own kite and design and the kites are over 15 feet or in that size category. Then they see which kite can stay up the longest. As I understand there is a lot of competition. These are taken to the beach to be flown.

They had a stop over in Alaska and Joe bought a glass of milk for 85 cents. They went to the McDonald's in Japan and a quarter-pounder is $1.90. Gas is $2.25 about a gallon. Billy said that coffee is almost $5 for two cups.

Thelma Merrill went to Norway Thursday with Joe and Gerry Shimamura.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Seames went to Farmington Sunday for the graduation of Ricky's brother, Steve, with a B. A. degree. Gram and Gramp Stearns (Bob and Joyce) babysat Dawn and Ryan.

Amy Laban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Laban, had a birthday party, May 8, for her sixth birthday. She had Eric Anderson, Emily Keyes, Sara Kailey, Heidi Moore, Molly Gray, Kristen Powell, Meg Ricombi, Nancy Carter, schoolmates, and her brothers Matthew and Christopher. They had a cookout and then cake and ice cream.

May 18 was Matthew Laban's tenth birthday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Laban and Amy and Christopher went to Berlin, N. H., to let Matthew pick out his present, and they all came back to Mothers' for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy had from Friday to Sunday, Bob Levesque, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levesque, Berlin, N. H.

Sunday, Frank Murphy was pleasantly surprised when his friend, Larry Frechet, Whitefield, N. H., visited him and brought a gallon of homemade horseradish.

Pat Anderson went in Tuesday and came out of the hospital Thursday for tests.

Sharon Benson Kimball was up helping her mother paint this past week.

Sylvia Benson and Joan Coolidge were in Norway Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Butters visited Jennie Adams in North Lovell, Sunday.

May 15, Judy Coolidge and two girls gave a handwork party. Lillian Conant was demonstrator and showed how to do different stitches. Besides the above were Albert Angevine, Betty Blake, Ruth Mason, Debbie Seames and two children, June Inman and two children, Linda Gibbs and Heather, and myself. Refreshments were served.

May 15, Mrs. Myrtle Lapham called and invited me to go with her up to the Albert Skilling place as I had never been there. This was a lovely ride and one gets a beautiful view of the countryside from their farm. The pastures were all green and some wild cherries and apple trees were blossomed. They had two beautiful forsythias in bloom on either side of their front door.

Betty Blake and Alberta Angevine went to Dixfield Saturday to get their mother, Mrs. Rene Abbott and took her to the Legion Hall in Oxford to a Retired Teachers Meeting.

Friendship
And more than a clasp of a hand.

Friendship's the happy assurance
There's someone who'll understand;

Someone who'll always be loyal
Though skies may be cloudy or blue,

And lucky indeed are the folks
Who can claim
A Wonderful Friend such as you.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

Most of the night the rain fell with a soft patter on the roof. The day began gray but I went out into a world of wetness and opening flowers, of robins making little watery calls. Other birds were everywhere but my prize visitor was the scarlet tanager in his gala uniform. The male is a most delightful color in his brilliant red coat and shiny black wings. As he flashed among the leaves, he was indeed gorgeous. His song is quite loud and pretty and is sometimes compared to a robin with a cold because of the wheezing quality. Only one other time have I seen a tanager.

Back for the summer is the rose breasted grosbeak and the hummingbird; with a rainbow whirl of wings because they revolve so fast, yet they give an illusion of stillness. The long bill seemed held fast to a magnet as it took nectar from a flower. No birds at all. For a few moments I stood there elated while the essence of summer touched me and the twitter of the birds dripped from among the leaves like the rain drops of last night.

Another constant visitor is that "scrap of sunset", the Baltimore Oriole. For several days he has called from the tree tops, "Here, here, up here."

The pond reflected the images of the sky and green growth. It was like waking up after a pleasant dream and realizing that maybe the new day would bring an exciting change.

I was glad to see the brightness at the time then the clouds moved once more above the water.

I went fishing for the first time this season. As I unfurled my boat, the black flies whisked about me taking a sip or two from exposed parts of my body. As I moved out, they did not follow.

A few waterlilies peeped from the water surface, their blooms not yet open.

There were many signs that revealed the richness of life at the pond.

Frogs pattered into the water, as did the turtles at the suggestion of an alarm. This is the season of intense growth of life in every part of the pond.

Two ducks discovered me and took to their wings.

On the water were the usual spring bugs; whirligig beetles found on rocks and logs but like best of all to dance and dart about on the water, and everywhere were the pond skaters, wearing their "hairy shoes". These keep them from sinking into the water and drowning.

While just sitting and enjoying,

I caught the glimpse of a shadow rusted beneath. The white blossoms grow in the axils of the small upper leaves, forming one sided.

Flowers look up high to see on light and never look down to see its shadow. This is a wisdom which man must learn.

Back in "Owl Valley" there came the call "Who-who-hoo-hoo-o-o" in a deep voice. Then in a lighter tone the same call came as an answer.

As I came home to get lunch, the flies again greeted me, when I fastened my boat. However, I had had fun. So I'll keep the lovely golden day a treasured time apart like warm days of childhood saved softly in the heart.

David and Sharon Holt, Princeton, were here over the week end, where they visited their parents here and in Locke Mills. They returned home on Sunday.

DYMENT - MEISNER

The First Congregational Church of Andover was the setting May 12 for the wedding of Diane Marie Meisner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Meisner, Andover, and Marlan A. Dymont. He is the son of Mrs. Evelyn R. Dymont, Mexico, and the late Walter B. Dymont.

Leon Strout officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Mark Thompson, Dixfield, was soloist. Traditional wedding music at the organ was furnished by Herschell Hall, Ashburnham, Mass., uncle of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlan A. Dymont

The bride's all lace gown was fashioned with a tiered skirt, scoop lace ruffled neckline, long puffed lace sleeves with a ruffled cuff. Her finger-tip length illusion lace-edged veil was caught to a half-caplet of embroidered lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of mini-carnations, yellow roses and daisies.

Betty Farrington, East Andover, was maid of honor, wearing ivory. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David W. Barrington, Rumford, sister of the bridegroom, in a navy blue and white gown; Mrs. Gregory L. Arsenault, Mexico, also in navy blue and white; and Audrey Hall, Ashburnham, Mass., cousin of the bride in red and white. Their satin gowns were fashioned with long sleeves, scoop neckline, empire waist and full skirt. Each wore a circlet of real flowers in their hair. They carried colonial bouquets of daisy poms and baby's breath to match their gowns.

The flower girl was Lisa MacKenney of South Andover. She wore a gown of pale yellow rayon taffeta and yellow flowered sheer nylon.

Dwayne Dymont, Mexico, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Gary L. Richard, Mexico; Gregory L. Arsenault, Mexico, and Gary R. Meisner, Augusta, brother of the bride.

A reception was held at the Andover Town Hall where the guest book was circulated by Mrs. Theodore Conrad, East Andover; and the gift table was attended by Dale Reed, Enfield, Conn., and Mrs. Matthew Brooks, Concord, N. H. Miss Patti Harlow made and decorated the wedding cake, featured at the buffet luncheon.

The bride, a graduate of Telstar Regional High School, is employed at Andover Wood Products Company. Her husband, a graduate of Mexico High School and Andover Institute of Business, Portland, is employed at G. H. Bass Co., Wilton.

Locke Mills

— Mrs. John Mills, Corres. —

Bible Study at 8 p. m. and Youth Group at 7 p. m. is expected to resume on Thursday this week after being cancelled last week owing to Rev. Wuori's respiratory infection.

Memorial Day is Monday. Don't forget to take in the parade and program.

Mrs. Verna Swan and Mrs. Lillian Lapham were Sunday dinner guests on Mother's Day at the home of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swan, Paris Hill. My apologies for the inadvertent omission of this item last week.

The Locke Mills School was treated to a film and demonstration by the Central Maine Power Co., Wednesday.

The recreation committee of Greenwood would like the public to express their appreciation to Dickey Tyler for the three long and hard weeks that he put in at the recreation field.

Mrs. Jean Grover took Mrs. John Mills to Norway Friday to have the stitches removed from her back. Jim Grover also accompanied them.

Anyone wishing to volunteer to work evenings or weekends on the little league field, please get in touch with one of the recreation committee: Garey "Butch" Fuller, Maurice Nadeau, John Chase, Leland Dunham or Sylvia Martin.

Bertha Flanders entertained at a housewares party at the Sunday School room Tuesday morning with Lillian Conant as demonstrator.

Present were: Caroline Roberts, Rowena Dunham, Edna Moxcey, Tura Martin, Patricia Moxcey, Thelma Gaudet, Dora Ford, Lora Noyes, Gladys Jordan, Georgia Jordan, Margery Swan, Shirley Morse, Pearl Jordan, and Faye Kimball. After the party Edna and Patsy Moxcey, Tura Martin and Thelma Gaudet had lunch with Mrs. Flanders before returning to their homes in East Waterford, Bryant Pond and Yarmouth.
